CROKER PREDICTS VICTORY

AND A NEW DEFINITION OF THE MUGWUMP TO LITERATURE.

The Mug Always Votes Against Somebody, Not for Anybody—Remarks About This Year's Local Crop of Independents—Thinks Judge Maynard Will Run Even with the Rest of the State Ticket.

Mr. Richard Croker, for the first time since the campaign opened, talked yesterday about politics, local and State. He predicts another complete victory for the Democracy.

"The entire Democratic ticket, State and local, will be elected beyond peradventure," he said.

Mr. Croker also expressed some opinions about Mugwumps and kickers in general and about certain persons who held office last year and were left off the ticket this year, in particular. Of one he spoke with great respect.
That one was Comptroller Myers.

Mr. Croker came to his office in Tammany Hall early, and he had got rid of his routine work when the reporters to whom he talked came in. He is ordinarily averse to being interviewed for publication, but he consented, after some talk, to dictate answers to the questions that were asked of him. The first question was:

"What are your views on the political situation at this stage of the campaign?"

"The entire Democratic State and local tickets," said Mr. Croker, "will be elected beyond peradventure. The great Democratic victory of last year throughout the nation shows that the drift of sentiment in the country was in the direction of Democratic principles and policies. Nothing has occurred since that election to change this sentiment. Of course I am fully aware that the Republicans, driven to desperation by the knowledge that their party are endeavoring to make capital out of the fact that a perfect, undermined depression recently overtook the country.
It would be an insult to the intelligence of the people to believe that they would regard this as something due to the Democratic Administration. It was an unfortunate legacy left from the last Republican Administration, and the people know it. It is well known that this period of depression came upon the country before President Cleveland took up the reins of government. No sensible man can be so foolish as to vote against the Democratic ticket by this Republican endeavor to shift the responsibility for the depression upon the shoulders of the business community, and the two Democratic United States Senators from this State are working with him to accomplish that end."

"What plurality do you think the local ticket will have?"

"I do not care to make any estimate now upon the figures, but the local ticket will be elected by a majority so large that it will insure the satisfaction of the administration of the candidates elected by Tammany Hall has given the people. There is no reason why this should not be so. There are people who like to criticize, to be sure, and who endeavor to find fault. I would like very much to have them point out to me where in the administration of this city is badly governed. If there had been government in any department, what to know it. Those in charge of the interests of Tammany Hall would like very much to be informed of the mistakes of the officials elected by the organization and challenge any one to show wherein they have erred in their duty to the public."

"Mr. Croker, it has been asserted in some of the newspapers that you have dictated your own nominations of the various candidates for the Assembly and the Senate in the New York City districts. What is the truth of that matter?"

"That statement is ridiculous. Tammany Hall has a capable and efficient leader in every one of the thirty Assembly districts of this city. The whole matter of selecting the candidates for the Assembly and the Senate is left to them and to their committees. All the central body of the organization requires is that they select men who will be loyal to the interests of the Democratic party. Now, a paper criticism is often directed in a disrespectful manner. I have no objection whatever to good, straight, honest criticism from the newspapers, but when criticism is simply used to satisfy the spite of some certain individual, and for his own benefit, it falls short of the mark. I cannot understand the policy of those to whom they can injure it in its progress toward becoming the greatest municipality in the world.

Why should not the papers of New York City rather seek to accelerate in every possible way the progress of the city rather than to retard it? Neither do I believe in the policy of newspapers which invade the privacy of homes and attack women and children because those in control of it have a grievance against a political party or against political leaders.

"Tammany Hall conducts its business precisely the same as a good business man conducts his. It tolerates nothing but the best with good government. It challenges comparisons of the results which it obtains with those of any other city of the nation. There is always some jealousy against the party in power, and it arises in most cases from men who have been disloyal and who have been unworthy servants of the people.
I have been turned out of office, and I have on that account, I am sure, been a better man than I was when I was in office. I have become a more independent and a more faithful servant of the people. I have gained that distinction by introducing strike bills and violating their oath of office to such an extent that this organization would not tolerate them.
Those gentlemen can now be found in the city of New York, and they are to take up arms against Tammany Hall in all so-called reform movements. There are also some who are in the city of New York and who neglect their duty to the people.
I have no objection to any man who is in the city of New York and who neglects his duty to the people. I have no objection
